

The Royal Executives

President & CEO/ Jennifer R. Glick

Owner, Publisher, Trader and Technical expert for two market research newsletter advisory services. Seminar Speaker and Educator on covered call writing. Known for her straight forward and conservative approach to investing. Over 20 Million Dollars successfully traded by a major US brokerage firm which followed Mrs. Glick's trade recommendations in her newsletter advisory services. Her newsletter services were independently audited by the brokerage firm and was ranked #1 most profitable newsletter research and advisory service among all their elite auto trade newsletter services which included the biggest investment names in the industry to date. Mrs. Glick sponsored live educational webinar events on the Options Institute Website, a division of the Chicago Board of Options Exchange (CBOE). She also had the permission from the CBOE to have a LIVE video feed on her Website featuring Jon "Doctor J" Najarian, host of CBOE-TV's "Before the Bell" and the CBOE Options Report with Doctor J.

Mrs. Glick enjoyed various network marketing business opportunities and built international sales organizations over the past 10 years. She is the Founder of The Royal Network, Inc. as well as The Royal Foundation, Inc. and RoyalTrades Investment Research Inc.

Executive Director of Product Development/ Brian K. Anderson

After earning his Bachelor of Science degree, Mr. Anderson became a Registered Representative with the world's largest independent fund management organization. He has traded every imaginable strategy applied to stocks, options, mutual funds and bonds. In addition, Mr. Anderson created and delivered numerous World Wide Web productions for advanced concepts such as the Psychology of Trading, Credit Spreads, Naked Puts, Straddles/Strangles, Price Patterns, and Support/Resistance. He is the inventor of multiple proprietary stock and option automated searches that range in comprehension from value investing to momentum trading. He is the author of scores of articles that include daily market commentary, weekly economic analysis, and encyclopedic content published on-line and with a market-leading investor education company. His expertise in strategy viability and information delivery was used for editing several investing education including The Royal Courseware.

Mr. Anderson has been mentoring retail investors toward success in the equities and derivatives markets for nearly a decade and estimates that he has analyzed over 10,000 trades. Most recently, he has developed a proprietary investing strategy that is only available to pre-qualified, private parties. Network Marketing friendly and endorses the logic of building an organization through a multilevel structure. Cofounder RoyalTrades Investment Research, Inc.

Executive Director/ Dorothy W. Watford

B.A. Degree, postgraduate work at Emory University and West Georgia University, Carrollton, Georgia in the field of Education, specializing in Adult Education. Previous employment included the Atlanta Board of Education and The Department of Human Resources, Atlanta, Georgia; The Trenton Board of Education, Trenton, New Jersey; And The Adult Learning Center, Birmingham, Alabama; Insurance Industry for 22 years, life underwriter with Liberty National Life Insurance Co., and as a College Funding Specialist State Manager, College Funding Division of Southern Security Life Insurance Co.; Senior Executive and Training Director with a former Network Marketing Company. Member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Board member of The Royal Foundation, Inc.